

ASSOCIATED STUDENTS OF HOLY NAMES UNIVERSITY

ASHNU CONSTITUTION

MISSION STATEMENT

We, the students of Holy Names University, do establish this Constitution of the Associated Students of Holy Names University. The purpose of this organization is to parallel the mission of the University by promoting the development of the whole person. The Associated Students seek to represent the student body by acting as a voice to the administration, faculty, staff, and the outside community. We also seek to promote and provide opportunities for involvement in all aspects of campus life including but not limited to the development of leadership skills and intellectual, cultural, and social growth.

Article I: NAME OF THE ORGANIZATION

This organization shall be known as the Associated Students of Holy Names University, herein referred to as ASHNU. The ASHNU Council shall consist of the ASHNU Executive Board and all ASHNU Boards, Class Representatives, and Committees.

Article II: MEMBERSHIP

Section A: Qualifications

Any student who is currently registered and enrolled in Holy Names University, who is in compliance with the rules and regulations of the College, shall be a member of ASHNU. Out of that membership, representatives will comprise the ASHNU Council, which will govern the student body.

Section B: Nondiscriminatory Policies

No member shall be denied full and equal opportunities in ASHNU on the basis of race, religion, gender, color, creed, ability, age, sexual orientation, national and/or ethnic origin.

Section C: Rights and Privileges

The rights and privileges of ASHNU members shall be:

1. The right to vote in all ASHNU elections for which they are eligible.
2. The opportunity to participate in all ASHNU organizations, committees, activities, and programs for which they are eligible.
3. The opportunity to run for and hold elected and appointed ASHNU positions providing all requirements for the position have been met.
4. The right to recall any elected officer who fails to meet the requirements and duties of office.
5. The right to vote on any referendum brought forth to ASHNU by a petition having the signature of 15% (percent) of the student population.
6. The right to initiate judicial procedures, as outlined in the Student Handbook.
7. The right to due process in all judicial procedures, as outlined in the Student Handbook.

Section D: Attendance Policy

Once elected, ASHNU officers are required to attend all regularly scheduled ASHNU meetings and office hours, and make a good faith effort to attend ASHNU-sponsored activities and events. Meetings are traditionally held from 12:30-1:30pm on a weekday.

1. Excused Absences: Officers are limited to no more than two excused absences, which include the following:

- a. Illness or medical appointment
 - b. Family emergency
 - c. Participation as an athlete at a regularly scheduled game
 - d. Attendance at a mandatory academic event, as required by the instructor
2. Office Hours: Members of ASHNU are required to complete office hours each week in the ASHNU Office (minimum 2 hours per week for members of the Executive Board and minimum 1 hour per week for members of the Class Council).
 3. Unexcused Absences: If an officer is found to be in violation of the attendance policy, s/he may be asked to reevaluate his/her commitment to ASHNU. The officer may:
 - a. Be asked to leave office immediately upon violation
 - b. Have stipend reevaluated and/or revoked (Article VI, Section C)

Article III: ASHNU COUNCIL PURPOSE AND FUNCTIONS

The purpose of the ASHNU Council is to provide for the general welfare of the entire student body. In doing so, the ASHNU Council will be given the following powers and responsibilities:

1. To be recognized as the official voice of students on campus.
2. To promote student interest in all areas of college life.
3. To raise and allocate funds for the benefit of the student body.
4. To coordinate and support student activities.
5. To review, advise, and make recommendations, as appropriate, to the University Administration regarding establishment and implementation of policies and procedures.
6. To have student representation on college boards, committees, and councils that affect student life.
7. To hold meetings and elections to discuss and vote on important issues that affect student life.
8. To resign from any ASHNU Council position for any personal reasons.

Article IV: STRUCTURE OF ASHNU COUNCIL

In providing for its responsibilities, ASHNU Council shall implement bylaws, codes, and other policies and procedures, which are consistent with this Constitution.

Section A: ASHNU Executive Board

The ASHNU Executive Board will consist of Student Body President, Vice President, Financial/Budget Coordinator, Campaign/Outreach Coordinator, Communications/Publicity Coordinator, Commuter Student Representative, Graduate Student Representative, and Student Life/Events Coordinator. This Executive Board will be responsible for the day-to-day operations of ASHNU. The Student Body President will be directly responsible to the ASHNU Advisor and the Executive Board. All other positions will be directly responsible to each other.

1. Student Body President: This person acts as the primary representative of the student body on all issues pertinent to student life. This person is responsible for the day-to-day activities of the Executive Board. This person will be a non-voting member of the Executive Board (except in the case of a tie). This person shall be responsible for facilitating the ASHNU Executive Board meetings. She/he will share information between students and the administration.
2. Vice President: This person will be in charge of directing and instructing all elections and Class Representatives. This person shall be a liaison for all the clubs, classes, and organizations at executive and administrative board meetings and before the student body.

She/he will be directly responsible for all the fiscal and organizational processes for these entities and their events.

3. Communications/Publicity Coordinator: This person is responsible for creating an agenda for each ASHNU meeting and taking minutes in all ASHNU meetings. This person is also responsible for retaining all files and records for the ASHNU Council. She/he is the primary public relations representative for the ASHNU Council and is responsible for the publicity and/or delegation of publicity for all ASHNU events.

4. Financial/Budget Coordinator: This person is responsible for the day-to-day financial operations of the ASHNU Council. This person will serve as the chief financial officer of the ASHNU Council. She/he will ensure that proper records are kept for all ASHNU funds and that the Council is kept updated. S/he will update ASHNU on a regular basis regarding the budget.

5. Student Life/Events Coordinator: The Student Life/Events Coordinator is responsible to the President in being a representative of the entire student body, including traditional undergraduate, adult, and graduate classes. This person shall also oversee all events put on through ASHNU. She/he shall create an activities board, which helps in planning the ASHNU events.

6. Campaign/Outreach Coordinator: This person will be responsible for working alongside the Communications/Publicity Coordinator to work on ASHNU led/sponsored campaigns as well as maintain connections through BAPSA (Bay Area Private Schools Association) with other private schools in the Bay Area.

7. Graduate Representative: This person will represent all the needs of the graduate students at Holy Names University and act as the liaison for the graduate students.

9. Commuter Student Representative: This person will represent all the needs of the commuter students at Holy Names University.

Section B: Committees

Committees are created by the ASHNU Executive Board to handle specific student issues. Each Class Council will be designated one committee, which they will oversee. All committees must report to the Executive Board and are to be headed by the Student Body President and or his/her designee.

Section C: ASHNU Advisor

ASHNU shall be supported by one or more advisors. The role of the advisor will be to advise the ASHNU Council on matters of procedures and campus policies. The advisor will also work closely in monitoring the Student Body President in all areas of her/his responsibility, including training and leadership development of the ASHNU Executive Board and other campus student leaders. The ASHNU Council reserves the right to remove an ASHNU advisor from his/her role if they believe the advisor's duties are not being met.

Article V: ELECTIONS

Section A: General Elections

Elections for ASHNU Executive Board and ASHNU Class Council will be held between the first and third weeks of April. Elections for the remaining positions will be held within the first month and a half of the following fall semester. The ASHNU Advisor, Student Body Vice President, and Communications/Publicity Coordinator will coordinate and oversee the elections for the following year. The election processes will be held in accordance with the ASHNU Bylaws and the Election Bylaws.

Section B: Constituency

All members of the Executive Board shall be elected by the entire student population. Other positions may be elected by the representing group of students, as outlined in the Bylaws.

Section C: Terms of Office

All ASHNU Council positions shall have a term of one year from Commencement to Commencement the following year. A transition period shall take place between election and Commencement. All Council positions shall have a term of one academic year, or as defined in the Bylaws.

Section D: Special Elections

Special elections should be held when a run-off election is needed to fill any vacancies in the ASHNU Council. Specific procedures for special elections are outlined in the appropriate bylaws.

Article VI: AMENDMENTS, REFERENDUM AND RECALL

Section A: Amendments

It is the right of the student body to propose amendments to the ASHNU Constitution and/or Bylaws. In order to propose such amendments, a student must submit a proposal, along with signatures of at least 15% of the existing student body, to the ASHNU Student Body President who shall ensure that the proposal is brought to an ASHNU election. A 2/3-majority vote is required to amend the ASHNU Constitution. A simple majority is required to amend ASHNU Bylaws.

Section B: Referendum

It is the right of the student body to challenge ASHNU Executive Board decisions by way of a referendum. In order to propose a referendum, a student must submit a proposal with signatures of at least 15% of the existing student body, to the ASHNU Student Body President and ASHNU Advisor who shall ensure that the proposal is addressed. Referendums may be addressed by the Executive Board presenting an alternate decision to the student body, or by providing a special election to handle the referendums. In some cases, judicial procedures may also be initiated.

Section C: Recall and Removal from Office

An ASHNU Council member may be recalled from office at any time for any of the following reasons:

1. Failure to consistently and effectively perform his/her duties as outlined in the ASHNU Constitution and Bylaws.
2. Failure to maintain the qualifications for the position.
3. Failure to comply with the policies of the University.
4. Any deliberate degradation or misrepresentation of the University or any member of its organization.

She/he may be recalled in one of three ways:

1. Recall by Executive Board.
2. Recall by Student Body President and Advisor.
3. Recall by constituency.

In the event of a recall the officer in question shall have the right to appeal her/his case to a judicial hearing board, which will hear all aspects of the case in accordance with procedures of due process. The board will then render its decision as to whether or not grounds exist for recall.

In the case of recall by constituency the judicial board will be made up of faculty and/or staff members, and/or administrators.

Article VII: ADOPTION

This Constitution shall be considered adopted with the approval of ASHNU upon 2/3-majority vote and approval of the Dean of Students. This Constitution shall take effect immediately on approval. Upon adoption of this Constitution, appointments that would have continued under that prior Constitution and any legislative acts not superseded by this new constitution shall continue in effect. This Constitution shall be considered to supersede all previous Constitutions.

ASSOCIATED STUDENTS OF HOLY NAMES UNIVERSITY

ASHNU BYLAWS

Article I: NAME

This document shall be called the Bylaws of the Associated Students of Holy Names University (ASHNU)

Article II: AUTHORITY

These Bylaws are established under the authority given in Article IV of the ASHNU Constitution.

Article III: PURPOSE

The purpose of the Bylaws is to aid in the interpretation and application of the ASHNU Constitution.

Article IV: ASHNU COUNCIL

The officers of the ASHNU Council shall be the Student Body President, the members of the Executive Board, and the Class Officers.

The terms of all ASHNU officers shall extend from Commencement to Commencement.

The Student Body President shall be a junior or senior for his/her entire term of office.

The Student Body President shall have served in ASHNU for at least one year prior to elections. All other officers shall be enrolled students for their entire term of office and be in good academic and judicial standing.

The order of succession to the Presidency shall be: Student Body Vice President and Senior Class President. In the event all said parties are unable to assume the office of Student Body President, the Executive Board assumes responsibility for succession. Vacancies in any elective office shall be filled by 2/3 vote of the total membership of the Executive Board.

Section A: General Duties

All ASHNU Council members shall inform themselves of all bylaws, rules, regulations, and standard operating procedures of the school and ASHNU. There will be a retreat for all new ASHNU members at the beginning of each academic year. An optional retreat may be held at the end of the ASHNU year.

- The retreat shall be held in the first few months after the start of the academic year.
- The ASHNU Advisor(s) and the ASHNU President will host the retreat.
- The content of the retreat agenda is under the scrutiny of advisors but must include an opportunity for the officers to set personal and group goals, an in-depth evaluation of their duties as outlined in the ASHNU Constitution and its Bylaws, and an informal meeting between all ASHNU members and some of the Sisters of the Holy Names of Jesus and Mary to inform the student leaders about the mission of the Sisters and the history of the College.
- At the end of the year, a meeting must be held to report on the year's successes and suggestions for succeeding officers, as well as an evaluation of preset goals (at this time the Constitution and Bylaws may be reviewed and revised). Also, a "training packet" for new members should be assembled.

All ASHNU members are required to:

- Attend all scheduled meetings and ASHNU sponsored functions.
- Act as the student body voice and link between the students, administration, and faculty.

Above all, the ASHNU Council must operate as a team and each member is directly responsible to the group.

Section B: Student Body President

The President shall be directly responsible to all the other ASHNU Council members and is also responsible for presiding over all Executive Board meetings and Class Council meetings. At these meetings he or she should ensure that the group stays focused, respects one another, and has fun. The President shall issue executive orders that comply with the Constitution and its Bylaws and all orders, which are under the power of the ASHNU Council. These orders must be unbiased and may not be used to express the personal opinion of the President or members of the ASHNU Council.

The President shall act as the spokesperson for ASHNU in the following ways:

- Faithfully execute this constitution and the laws contained within this document.
- Serve as President of ASHNU and be its official representative.
- Act as “MC” during all ASHNU sponsored student forums.
- Speak at events (Orientation, Convocation, etc.) as a representative of ASHNU and the student body as a whole.

The Class Vice President will be responsible for the following:

- Shall take and post minutes of class meetings.
- Shall assume the responsibilities of the Class President in the absence of the Class President.
- Shall submit a report to the ASHNU Vice President at the end of each semester. The report shall include all the important information regarding activities, meetings and/or concerns of the represented class. The Vice President shall then give this report to the Executive Board.
- Shall work at least 10 hours per week with at least one of those hours spent in the ASHNU office.
- Shall be responsible for planning and coordinating class events while consulting with the Class President

Article VI: Elections

Section A: General Elections

All elections shall be handled by the Electoral Governing Board that is made up of the ASHNU Advisor, the Executive Vice President and one other student representative selected by the ASHNU Executive Board. Ballots are to be counted by the Electoral Governing Board.

The Advisor and selected student representatives shall:

- Schedule and conduct appropriate ASHNU Council elections in accordance with the ASHNU Constitution, its Bylaws, and the Election Bylaws.
- Prepare election material and inform the student body of election procedures.
- Review eligibility criteria for each candidate.
- Review and determine validity of all election materials.
- Ensuring that the polls are staffed at the designated times.
- Post election materials and results.

Section B: Special Elections

▪ Run off

A run-off election will be held in the case of a tie vote in an election. A run-off election will take place as soon as possible, no later than three weeks following the initial election. In run-off elections a simple majority will determine a winner.

▪ Office Vacancies

If a vacancy occurs within the ASHNU Council, an election will take place to fill the vacancy following procedures as above, with modifications as necessary.

The election must occur within three weeks of the official resignation or recall, and is applicable to all offices except for that of the ASHNU President. If the office of the President becomes vacant, then the Executive Board shall select one of its members to fill the position.

Section C: Election Voting Procedures

1. The names of eligible voters (all registered students) shall be on a list provided by the Registrar's Office.
2. All ballots will be kept for at least 30 days after the elections have taken place. All election information and results will be kept on file for future use.
3. Any candidate may request a recount.
4. Voting shall be held for at least two days.
5. The elections must take place in at least two polling places.
6. Those at polling stations shall not speak to voters about candidates.

Section D: Election of Executive Board Members

1. Executive Board candidates must complete an election packet, which includes a letter of intent for posting. These candidates are required to give a speech at a designated student forum(s) within the week before the voting.
2. The introduction to the student body shall take place at Convocation of the following academic year. Officers elected will attend regular weekly Executive Board meetings, following the spring election, as non-voting observers, shadowing members until the last meetings of the spring semester. New officers officially take their new positions on the day of Commencement.

Section E: Board Selection Process

1. Class Board: At the end of the spring semester, a President and Vice President shall be elected for the senior, junior and sophomore classes. The freshmen class officers will be selected the following fall. Each candidate shall complete an election packet and submit it by the designated deadline. Included in the election packet will be a letter of intent, which shall be posted on the ASHNU board. Candidates will be allowed to campaign from the time they are approved by Student Development and Engagement until after their election speeches. Only members of the specific class will be allowed to vote for class representatives. A majority of the voting constituency will be required for each candidate to obtain a position.

Article VII: RECALL AND RESIGNATIONS

Section A: Recall Procedures

A recall issue is to be raised by the respective ASHNU Board or constituency in the form of a written document stating the reasons for recall. In the case of a constituency, the document shall include signatures of at least fifteen percent of the constituency.

1. The person in question shall be informed of the potential for a recall.
2. Once a recall issue has been raised, there will be a call for vote by the respective ASHNU Board or constituency and the student body will be informed of the outcome immediately.
3. If the ensuing vote results in a two-thirds favor for recall, the advisor and the Dean of Students must be informed of the vote.
4. To ensure due process, the person in question may request a hearing. This hearing board is to be made up of persons, including, but not limited to, the advisors, and a student. This board shall investigate all aspects of the case in accordance with procedures of due process, as stated in the Student Handbook. The board will have seven days to investigate the case and render a decision.
5. If the hearing board finds just cause for recall the recall issue shall go to the ASHNU

Council or originating constituency for a vote. The results of this vote stand.

6. If the hearing board finds no just cause for recall, the issue shall be taken back to the initiating board or constituency. This board or constituency will work with the hearing board to resolve the recall issue through conflict resolution methods.

Section B: Resignations

Resignations shall occur if the officer for any reason feels that she/he is no longer capable of performing her/his duties properly.

Procedures: A written resignation shall be given to the ASHNU Executive Board and/or respective board(s). The resignation must contain the officer's name, position, and a brief explanation of her/his reasons for resigning. This statement will be read by the Communications/Publicity Coordinator (or other appropriate officer) at the next ASHNU Executive and respective board(s) meeting. All resignations are final and result in disqualification from appointment to that office for the rest of the year.

Article VIII: VOTING PROCEDURES

Section A: Quorums

A voting quorum for the ASHNU Executive Board will be two-thirds of the elected members represented. Quorums for all other boards will be decided by their particular board Bylaws.

Section B: Representation

Representatives on the ASHNU Executive Board and Class Board should vote in accordance with the majority of their constituency's expressed wishes, unless their wishes go against the mission statement or the general ethical guidelines of the College or ASHNU.

Article IX: Leadership Scholarships

If each member of ASHNU performs their duties they will receive a scholarship in the form of a stipend to be issued in quarterly payments. The funds for the scholarships will come directly from the ASHNU account. The following structure is as follows:
