

THE KODÁLY FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM AT HOLY NAMES UNIVERSITY

Through generous funding by the William and Flora Hewlett Foundation, the Kodály Endowment Fund enables the Kodály Center for Music Education to award Fellowships to eligible full- and part-time students working toward the Master of Music Education with Kodály emphasis or the Kodály Specialist Certificate.

To apply for a Kodály Fellowship you must:

- Have a completed Graduate Admissions File
- Turn in a completed Financial Aid Form (FAF) to:

Director of Financial Aid
Holy Names University
3500 Mountain Blvd.
Oakland, CA 94619-9989

- Write a letter stating both your reasons for pursuing studies in the Kodály Program at Holy Names University, and how the study will benefit you professionally. Mail this letter to:

Director
Kodály Center for Music Education
Holy Names University
3500 Mountain Blvd.
Oakland, CA 94619-9989

The amounts of awards are based on the following:

- Academic and professional potential
- Financial need
- Availability of funds at the time of application
