

3rd Annual Nursing Symposium

THE POWER OF NURSING: Agents for Change

Networking | Discourse | Engagement

Earn 8 Continuing Education Units in one day!

Friday, March 24, 2017

7:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Valley Center for the Performing Arts

Symposium hosted by:

3500 MOUNTAIN BLVD., OAKLAND, CA

▶ KEYNOTE SPEAKER:

Joseph Morris, PhD, Executive Officer,
California Board of Registered Nursing

GUEST SPEAKER:

Joanne Spetz, PhD,
Director of UCSF Health Workforce Research Center

NURSE SPEAKER:

Maria Mangini, PhD,
FNP Program Director, HNU

PANELIST SPEAKERS REPRESENTING:

- ▶ Alameda Health Systems
- ▶ Stanford Health Care
- ▶ Ohlone College
- ▶ Kaiser Permanente
- ...and more

For more information on the panelist speakers, please go to: hnu.edu/nursingsymposium.

OBJECTIVES:

1. Discuss the impact of nurses as change agents in academia, practice, research, and policy.
2. Understand the relationship of higher education to practice in an era of rapid change.
3. Identify the roles of nurses across the healthcare continuum in promoting health equity.
4. Explore the potential of inter-professional collaborative practice to attain IHI Triple AIM goals - better quality, better value, and better experience of care.

Earn 8 Continuing Education Units in one day!

To register go to:

www.hnu.edu/nursingsymposium

Registration: $30

Register before January 31 for entry prize. Limited seating.
Registration is strongly recommended by March 1, 2017.